Looks at Christian counseling from the perspectives of a client and her therapist. Eases fears, provide hope and dispels about counseling. Honestly and engagingly told, Healing Conversations is the story of Dorothy Barnes's journey through therapy. Anger, painful memories, destructive family patterns and her unwillingness to trust and confide in others were a part of her voyage. But with God as her companion, it was a journey into hope for Dorothy. Each chapter also offers an inside look from the therapist's point of view. "Ralph's Notes" give insights from Dr. Ralph Earle, Dorothy's therapist, who helps us understand her emotional and spiritual growth from a professional's perspective. If you are considering counseling or want to understand it better, you will find that this book provides a remarkable picture of the power of God in therapy. Dorothy Barnes has a master's degree in counseling from the University of Phoenix. She is a freelance writer living in Tempe, Arizona. Dr. Ralph Earle is president of Psychological Counseling Services in Scottsdale, Arizona, and past president of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy. He is also the author of Come Here/Go Away: Stop Running from the Love You Want.
